Accommodation

There are a number of low cost hotels in the downtown Toronto area such as the Holiday Inn Toronto Bloor Yorkville or the Super 8 Downtown Toronto. For those seeking a mid-price hotel another option is the Intercontinental Toronto Yorkville. Please note these are just suggestions and symposium attendees are encouraged to find accommodation that best suits their needs.

Dinner on September 21st

CAPE tradition calls for an informal dinner to be held on the evening of the Symposium. The cost will be roughly $50 before taxes and tip. Please indicate on the Registration Form whether you will be attending this dinner. The name and location of the restaurant will be announced at the beginning of the Symposium.

Simultaneous translation

Unfortunately, simultaneous translation (French/English) will not be available during the Symposium. You may present in either French or English. Note: To receive the Submission and Registration Forms in French, please contact clane@mcmaster.ca to place the request.

WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN TORONTO!
